

Members and Friends of Football,

Welcome to the Southern California Soccer Referee Association (SCSRA). SCSRA is one of the oldest and most prestigious associations of soccer officials in Southern California. SCSRA is an organization dedicated to the growth and development of quality officials for all types of soccer matches.

Our training and leadership development programs have mentored numerous officials through the ranks. Our membership includes soccer officials that range from beginners to FIFA™ World Cup level officials. We are pleased to count among our members National Referees Steve Elliott and Mark Arblaster; Major League Soccer Official Fabio Tovar; and 2006 World Cup Referee Kevin Stott.

It can be undertaken as part-time or full-time career and the leadership skills that are learned as a referee can be utilized throughout life. Through soccer, many of our referees have traveled throughout the state, nation and the world. Soccer can open doors to an exciting future.
